

Rancho Sahuarita Home Permits Up By 80% This Year

This article has been archived, please login for access or subscribe now for a free trial.

“Builders and the public are attracted to Rancho Sahuarita for the life-style,” according to Ted Herman, Director of Real Estate at Sharpe & Associates, “we make a big effort to make residents’ lives more fun and enjoyable with a wide variety of events.” This month an eclectic community event calendar shows a car and motorcycle show, a rodeo round up day, the 6th annual father/daughter dance, speakers on financial matters and an assortment of health and fitness classes for every member of the family. Something for everyone seems to be working well there.

On February 22, 2013 Richmond American Homes (NYSE: MDC) the home building subsidiary of M.D.C. Holdings, closed on 24 finished lots, paying