

Tucson REALTORS® Make a few Endorsements in Primary Election

TUCSON, AZ – In the upcoming August 30 Primary Election, the Tucson Association of REALTORS® (TAR) endorses Rhonda Pina, Bill Rodman and Steve Solomon for the three Oro Valley Town Council seats, and Steve Christy for the District 4 Pima County Supervisor seat.

“Rhonda Pina, Bill Rodman and Steve Solomon will bring common sense and a spirit of cooperation to the Oro Valley Town Council,” states TAR 2016 President Eric Gibbs.

“We look forward to working together with Rhonda, Bill and Steve to continue to shape the town that many of our association members are proud to call home,” he added.

“Steve Christy has worked hard as a respected business and civic leader in our community,” stated TAR President Eric Gibbs. “His experience and perspective will greatly enhance the Pima County Board of Supervisors. We look forward to working with Steve to make Pima County a better place to work and live.”

Candidate interviews were conducted by the association’s Candidate and Ballot Measures Task Force.
